COLLECTIVE AGREEMENT

between

THE OSHAWA PUBLIC LIBRARY BOARD
(hereinafter referred to as "the Employer")
OF THE FIRST PART

THE CANADIAN UNION OF PUBLIC EMPLOYEES
AND ITS LOCAL NO. 960, C.L.C.
(hereinafter referred to as "the Union")
OF THE SECOND PART

WHEREAS it is the responsibility of the Employer to provide the taxpaying public with efficient library service, and it is the responsibility of the employees working under the direction of the Employer or its representatives to contribute towards this; and

WHEREAS it is desirable that a spirit of co-operation and understanding be maintained between the Employer and the members of the Union, and the Employer and the Union recognize the mutual value of joint discussions and negotiations in matters concerning working conditions, hours of work, scale of salaries, efficiency of operation, the elimination of waste, and the promotion of morale, well-being and economic security of all members of the bargaining unit; and

WHEREAS it is desirable that methods of bargaining and all matters pertaining to working conditions of the employees be drawn up in an agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, this agreement witnesseth:

That the parties hereto in consideration of the mutual covenants hereinafter contained agree each with the other as follows:

ARTICLE 1 RECOGNITION AND NEGOTIATIONS

- 1.01 The Employer, or anyone authorized to act on their behalf, approves and recognizes the Canadian Union of Public Employees and its Local No. 960 as the sole collective bargaining agent for all of its employees, save and except, Managers and persons above the rank of Manager; Executive Assistant; Administrative Assistant; one Confidential Systems Administrator, and students and hereby consents and agrees to negotiate with the Union, or any authorized committee thereof, in any and all matters affecting the relationship between the parties to this agreement, looking toward a peaceful and amicable settlement of all and any differences that may arise between them.
- 1.02 (a) Employees whose regular jobs are not in the bargaining unit shall not regularly work on any jobs which are included in the bargaining unit except for purposes of instruction, experimentation, or in emergencies when regular employees are not available. The intent of this clause shall be such that no bargaining-unit employee's job shall be adversely affected.
- (b) No Bargaining Unit Employee shall lose any existing hours, be laid off, or fail to be recalled as a result of the utilization of students or volunteers. The Employer shall provide the Bargaining Unit with advanced written notification whenever volunteers are to be utilized.
- 1.03 With respect to employees covered by this agreement, the Employer shall not recognize, during the currency of this agreement, any other bargaining unit with respect to any matters herein dealt with.
- 1.04 No employee shall be required, or permitted, to make any written or verbal agreement which may conflict with the terms of this agreement unless agreed to by the Union.

ARTICLE 2 NO DISCRIMINATION

- 2.01 The Employer and the Union, their servants and agents, agree that there shall be no discrimination, interference, restriction or coercion exercised or practised with respect to any employee in the matter of hiring, wage rates, up-grading, promotion, transfer, lay-off, discipline, discharge or otherwise by reason of: age, race, ancestry, place of origin, colour, ethnic origin, citizenship, creed, sex, sexual orientation, record of offences, marital status, family status or disability, pursuant to the Ontario Human Rights Code; nor by reason of membership in a trade union.
- 2.02 The Union and the Employer recognize the right of the employees to work in an environment free from Personal Harassment and Bullying. Personal Harassment and Bullying is defined as objectionable conduct, comments, or displays by a person employed by the Employer, either directly or indirectly that demean, belittle or cause personal humiliation or embarrassment, that is directed at and offensive to another employee and which the first person knows or ought reasonably to have known to be unwelcome to the recipient.

- 2.03 For clarification, Personal Harassment and Bullying does not include, among other things, proper management disciplinary actions, counseling, or actions related to performance or attendance problems that are conducted according to Library procedures.
- 2.04 Should an employee believe they are a victim of Bullying or Personal Harassment they should first follow the procedures outlined in the Library's Harassment Prevention Policy. If the issue is still not resolved through the Harassment Prevention Policy, it may be filed as a grievance at step #2 within ten (10) business days after the conclusion of the Harassment Prevention Policy process.

ARTICLE 3 UNION SECURITY

- 3.01 All employees of the Employer coming within the scope of this agreement shall, as a condition of continued employment, become and remain members of the Union according to the Constitution and By-laws of the Union. All future employees of the Employer shall, as a condition of continued employment, become members of the Union not later than three (3) months from date of last employment.
- 3.02 The Employer agrees that a Local Union Officer within the workplace will be given the opportunity to meet with each newly hired employee for the purpose of advising such employee of their rights and obligations under the terms of this agreement. Such introduction shall not exceed thirty minutes and is to occur within the first month of employment.
- 3.03 The Employer agrees to provide to the Union the names, addresses, and phone numbers of all bargaining unit members. The Union agrees that the information shall only be used for the proper administration of the Collective Agreement and is to remain confidential.

ARTICLE 4 CHECK-OFF OF UNION DUES

- 4.01 The Employer agrees to deduct from every employee coming within the scope of the agreement any monthly Union dues or assessments and Union initiation fees (provided these are not fines) levied in accordance with the Union Constitution or By-laws.
- 4.02 Deductions shall be made from each pay period and shall be forwarded to the Secretary-Treasurer of the Union with a copy to the National Secretary-Treasurer not later than the 15th day of the month following the month in which the deductions were made. Remittances shall be accompanied by a list of all employees from whose wages the deductions have been made and the hours paid.

- 4.03 The amount of Union dues deduction shall be shown on each employee's income tax slip (T-4).

ARTICLE 5 RESOLUTIONS AND REPORTS OF THE EMPLOYER

- 5.01 (a) Copies of all resolutions and by-laws adopted by the Employer which affect the members of the Union are to be forwarded to the Union by the Employer and are to be posted on the Union bulletin board by the Secretary of the Union.
- (b) Copies of all resolutions or by-laws adopted by the Union which affect deductions under article 4.01 are to be forwarded to the Employer by the Union.

ARTICLE 6 MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

- 6.01 The Union acknowledges that it is the exclusive right of the Employer to direct the working forces, to promote, demote, lay-off, transfer and discipline; also to discharge employees, who have completed their probationary period, only for just cause and without limiting the generality of the foregoing to determine and exercise all other prerogatives which remain solely with the Employer except as specifically limited by the express provisions of this agreement.
- 6.02 The Employer agrees that it will not exercise these functions in conflict with any of the provisions of this agreement and, further, that employees shall have the right to file a grievance in the manner hereinafter set forth.

ARTICLE 7 LABOUR/MANAGEMENT NEGOTIATIONS

7.01 Bargaining Committee

- (a) The Employer acknowledges the right of the Union to appoint a bargaining committee from among its regular employees, and shall recognize said committee for the purpose of attending negotiating meetings with Employer representatives. The Union will notify the Employer in writing of the names of such committee members.
- (b) It is understood and agreed that members of the bargaining committee shall, where permission has been granted, be permitted to leave their employment temporarily to attend at negotiating meetings with Employer representatives. Such committee members, up to a maximum of four (4), one of whom shall be President of the local Union, shall suffer no loss of pay, benefits or seniority for time spent at such meetings.

7.02 Representatives of the Parties

The Union and the Employer shall each have the right at any time to have the assistance of an authorized representative of the Canadian Union of Public Employees or outside counsel when dealing or negotiating with each other. The representative of the Canadian Union of Public Employees shall request permission to have access to the Employer's premises in order to investigate or assist in the settlement of grievances, which permission shall not be unreasonably withheld.

7.03 Meeting of Committee

In the event of either party wishing to call a meeting of the committee, the meeting shall be held at a time and place fixed by mutual agreement. However such meeting will normally be held not later than six (6) calendar days after the request has been made by either party.

ARTICLE 8 SENIORITY

8.01 Seniority List

Seniority and qualifications shall be the basis for promotion, demotion, lay-off and recall, and all other matters measured by length of service with the Employer. Seniority shall operate on a bargaining-unit-wide basis. The Employer shall maintain a seniority list showing the date upon which each employee's seniority commenced. An updated list shall be forwarded to the Union and posted on the Union bulletin board every six months if there are changes.

8.02 Seniority for New Employees

Newly hired employees shall be considered to be on probation for a period of six (6) months from their last date of hire. During the probationary period employees shall be entitled to all rights and privileges of this agreement except with respect to discharge. It is understood that the Employer may discharge a probationary employee for any reason satisfactory to the Employer provided that it is done in good faith and in a non-arbitrary manner. The employment of such employees may be terminated at any time during this period of six (6) months. After completion of the probationary period seniority shall be effective from the original last date of employment.

Seniority During Absence

If an employee is absent from work because of sickness, accident or maternity, parental or adoption leave, they shall continue to accumulate seniority while they continue to be absent.

If an employee is absent from work because of layoff or leaves of absence approved by the Employer, they shall continue to accumulate seniority while they continue on lay-off or leave of absence for a period of up to 6 months.

Loss of Seniority

An employee shall lose their seniority and their employment shall be deemed to have been terminated in the event:

- (a) They are discharged for just cause and is not reinstated;
- (b) They resign;
- (c) They are absent from work in excess of three (3) working days without notifying the Employer, unless such notice was not reasonably possible;
- (d) That after a lay-off they fail to return to work within seven (7) calendar days after being notified by registered mail to do so unless through sickness or other just cause;
- (e) Of retirement;
- (f) They are not actively employed by the Employer for a period in excess of twenty-four (24) months subject to the Human Rights Code;
- (g) They are not recalled for a period in excess of twenty-four (24) months.

It shall be the responsibility of the employee to keep the Employer informed of their current address and telephone number, if any.

Seniority During Transfers to Non-Bargaining Unit Positions

No employee shall be transferred to a position outside the bargaining unit without their consent. If an employee is transferred to a position outside the bargaining unit, seniority shall accumulate for the first six (6) months from the date of them leaving the bargaining unit and thereafter shall be frozen.

Where the transfer outside the bargaining unit is identified as being temporary and such employee is returned to the bargaining unit within the first year of them leaving, they shall be entitled to return to his prior job and any other employee promoted or transferred because of the re-arrangement of positions shall be returned to their former position without loss of seniority or former salary. Where the transfer is not temporary or where it extends beyond one year, they may return to the unit in accordance with their seniority.

8.06 Retention of Seniority Rights

In the event that the Employer merges or amalgamates with any other body, the Employer if within its power to do so, undertakes to ensure that:

- (a) Employees shall be credited with all seniority rights with the new Employer;
- (b) All service credits relating to vacations with pay, sick leave credits and all other benefits shall be recognized by the new Employer.

8.07 Upon successful completion of the probationary period, a temporary employee who becomes a regular employee within thirty (30) days following their temporary assignment, shall have all their temporary hours worked credited to their seniority.

ARTICLE 9 LAY-OFFS AND RECALL

9.01 Lay-off and Recall Procedure

- (a) In the event of the layoff of five (5) days or less, employees can be laid off without regard to seniority and without notice.
- (b) In the event of a longer layoff of less than five (5) employees at any one time, the Employer shall provide the Union and the employees with at least one (1) week written notice or such greater amount of notice as may be required by the Employment Standards Act (Ontario).
- (c) In the event of a layoff of more than five (5) employees at one time, the Employer will provide eight (8) weeks' written notice or pay in lieu thereof.
- (d) Where the layoff results in displacement of the staff, the original notice shall constitute notice to the Union and the employee displaced.

9.02 Notice of Lay-off

When the Employer determines that a reduction of staff is necessary, the following shall apply:

The employee whose job has been eliminated will be assigned to the first position determined in accordance with the following sequence:

- To a vacant position in their band which they are qualified and able to perform.

- If no such position is available, to the position held by the most junior employee in their band that they are qualified and able to perform and provided they are more senior than the incumbent.
- If no such position is available, to a vacant position in the next lower band that they are qualified and able to perform.
- If no such position is available, to the position held by the most junior employee in that band that they are qualified and able to perform and provided they are more senior than the incumbent.
- Each band will be reviewed in descending order until a vacant job or a job held by the most junior employee is identified for which they are qualified and able to perform and which they are more senior than the incumbent. If no such job exists, they will be laid off.

Any employee displaced in accordance with the above procedure shall be assigned according to the same sequence. Bands shall be ranked highest to lowest with the top band being the band with the highest hourly job rate.

9.03 Employees may accept lay-off

If the employee does not wish to accept the assignment made in accordance with the above procedure, they may elect to be laid off provided they make such election in writing within five (5) business days of being notified of the appointment.

9.04 Recall

When a vacancy occurs that is not filled by the normal posting process, an employee on layoff, who retains recall rights, shall be recalled in order of seniority to an available position before new employees are hired, provided they are qualified and able to perform the available work. Employees who have been reassigned pursuant to the layoff procedure shall have the right to return to their original job, before the job is posted, if it becomes available within six (6) months of their reassignment.

9.05 Continuation of Benefits

The Employer agrees to pay the full cost of premiums for welfare benefits, excluding OMERS and CPP, for employees laid off for periods of less than six (6) months. In the event of a longer lay-off, the employees so affected will be entitled to continue their coverage, excluding OMERS and CPP, until their recall rights expire, by directly paying the full cost of the premiums themselves.

ARTICLE 10 FILLING VACANCIES

10.01 Posting

When a vacancy is determined to exist or a new position in the bargaining unit is established, the Employer shall notify the Local Union in writing and post notice of the position on the Staff bulletin board in each branch for five (5) business days. Such notice shall contain the following information:

Nature of position; general description of duties; required qualifications, including education; ability; skills; anticipated work hours; current work location; wage or salary range or rate.

No outside application for additional employees shall be considered until after such posting has been completed.

The posting period shall end at 5:00 p.m. on the last day (i.e. fifth day).

Where an existing position becomes and remains vacant for one month, then the Employer will indicate to the Union whether or not it intends to fill the position.

10.02 Method of Making Appointments

In filling a vacancy or new position, the best applicant shall be appointed. If two applicants are relatively equal with respect to qualifications, skill, and ability, then the more senior will be appointed.

The successful applicant shall be placed on a trial period of three (3) months. Conditional on satisfactory service, such trial period shall become permanent after the period of three (3) months.

In the event the successful applicant proves unsatisfactory, during the aforementioned trial period, they shall be returned to their former position without loss of seniority or former salary, and any other employee promoted or transferred because of the re-arrangement of positions shall be returned to their former position without loss of seniority or former salary.

If there are no applicants who meet the posted qualifications, then the position may be filled from outside sources.

10.03 Union Notification

The Union shall be notified promptly of all appointments, hirings, lay-offs, recalls and terminations of employment and of all newly created jobs.

10.04 Employees with Disabilities

Any employee covered by this agreement who through injury, illness, or disability (all of which are to be certified by a doctor selected by the parties), is unable to perform their regular duties shall be given the preference of any light work available at the salary payable at the time for the position to which they are assigned.

The employee shall be entitled to return to their prior position if they become able to perform the full responsibility of that job within two (2) years of being assigned the light duty position.

10.05 Promotions Requiring Higher Qualifications

If no qualified employee is appointed to a vacancy according to Article 10.02, the Employer, where practical, agrees to give every reasonable consideration to employees who have been preparing themselves for qualification prior to the time of posting or, through on-the-job training, if they could reasonably be expected to satisfactorily perform the total job within a six-month period. If these conditions are not satisfactorily completed within such time the employee shall revert to their former position.

10.06 The Employer agrees to give to the Union brief qualification requirements for each job which shall be used for job posting. Unless a job changes or a new job is established, the qualifications set out shall not be changed during the lifetime of this agreement.

10.07 The job qualifications as set out in Schedule D shall be used for the purpose of job postings pursuant to this article. The qualifications in Schedule D shall form an integral part of this Collective Agreement and shall remain unchanged except as below noted. The Employer shall cover all costs incurred by Criminal Record checks for Employees who are posted or transferred to any position in the Bargaining Unit.

Where the establishment of a new job, or the changing in duties of an existing job (as of the signing date of this agreement) requires the review of qualifications, the procedures as outlined in the Joint Job Evaluation Committee Letter of Understanding dated October 17, 2021 shall apply.

10.08 All unsuccessful applicants shall be notified of the successful applicant within three days of the successful applicant being determined. Unsuccessful applicants may request a meeting with the Employer to review why they are not successful. Wherever possible, the meeting will be held within two weeks of the request. At the meeting, the Employer will attempt to provide information concerning where other candidates were stronger and areas where the employee might improve.

10.09 Transfers

It is understood that the Employer may transfer an employee from one job assignment to another within their classification for legitimate operational reasons. Where possible, seniority will be a consideration, provided that legitimate operational requirements are still being met. A job classification is defined by the job titles as identified in Schedule "A". Wherever possible the Employer will give one (1) months' notice of such transfer. The Employer agrees to discuss such plans with the Union in advance with a view to minimizing the impact of such transfers on staff. The Employer further agrees that no employee shall be transferred as set out above more than once every eighteen (18) months unless the employee agrees to do so, or in the case of emergency.

ARTICLE 11 GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

- 11.01 In order to provide an orderly procedure for the settling of grievances the Employer acknowledges the right of the Union to appoint or otherwise select Stewards (who shall have the assistance of the Union President, or their appointee) whose duties shall be to assist an employee in preparing and presenting their grievance in accordance with the grievance procedure. The Employer will recognize two (2) Stewards to represent employees in the main library, and one (1) Steward to represent employees at each branch library. Should no regular Steward(s) be available, the Chief Steward or any member of the Union Executive shall act as a Steward.
- 11.02 The Union shall notify the Employer in writing of the names of the Stewards and the areas they represent.
- 11.03 A Steward with another person so selected shall constitute the Grievance Committee so long as they remain employees or until their successors are chosen.
- 11.04 In order that the work of the Employer shall not be unreasonably interrupted, a Steward shall not leave their work without first obtaining the permission of a manager; such permission not to be unreasonably withheld.
- 11.05 Should a dispute arise between the Employer and any employee(s) or the Union regarding the interpretation, meaning, operation or application of this agreement, including, any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable, or where an allegation is made that this agreement has been violated, or should any other dispute arise concerning the Collective Agreement, an earnest effort will be made to settle the dispute in the following manner and the parties will meet with a view to attempting to resolve the issue before invoking the formal grievance procedure. Failing resolution, the dispute will be dealt with by a grievance being filed within five (5) business days after the circumstances giving rise to the complaint have occurred or ought to have reasonably come to the attention of the employee(s) or Union.

Step No. 1: The aggrieved employee shall submit a written grievance to their Steward. If the Executive of the Local Union considers the grievance to be justified, the employee concerned, together with the Steward, shall seek to settle the dispute by presenting the grievance to the Manager, or their appointee within the above mentioned five (5) day period.

Step No. 2: Failing satisfactory settlement within five (5) business days after the dispute was submitted under Step No. 1, the employee concerned, together with the Grievance Committee, will submit the grievance to the Chief Executive Officer or designate whose decision will be rendered within ten (10) business days.

Failing settlement under the foregoing procedure of any grievance between the parties, arising from the interpretation, application or alleged violation of the agreement, including any question as to whether the matter is arbitrable, such grievance may be submitted to arbitration as set forth in Article 12.

If no written request for arbitration is received within fifteen (15) business days after the decision under Step No. 2 is given, it shall be deemed to have been settled and not eligible for arbitration.

- 11.06 Where a dispute involving a question of general application or interpretation occurs, or where a group of employees have a grievance, Steps 1 and 2 of this article may be by-passed. Replies to grievances shall be in writing at all stages, and grievances shall be presented in writing at all stages.
- 11.07 Grievances settled satisfactorily within the time allowed shall date from the time the grievance was filed. The Employer shall provide the necessary facilities for the grievance meeting.
- 11.08 Grievances which remain outstanding at the conclusion of the grievance procedure may, if both parties agree, be referred to a jointly selected Mediator prior to any referral to arbitration. The costs of any such mediation shall be borne equally by the parties.

If a grievance remains outstanding at the conclusion of mediation, either party may refer it to arbitration within fifteen (15) business days of the mediation.

ARTICLE 12 ARBITRATION

12.01 Composition of Board of Arbitration

- (a) When either party requests that a grievance be submitted to arbitration, the request shall be made in writing addressed to the other party to the agreement. Within five (5) business days thereafter each party shall name an Arbitrator to an Arbitration Board and notify the other party of the name and address of its appointee.

- (b) As an alternative to the procedure set out above, the parties may mutually agree to use a sole Arbitrator. The party making the request shall notify the other party in writing of the proposed Arbitrator.

12.02 If the recipient of the notice fails to appoint an Arbitrator, or if the two appointees fail to agree upon a chair within five (5) business days, or any extension agreed upon by the parties, the appointment shall be made by the Minister of Labour of Ontario upon the request of either party.

12.03 No person shall be selected as a member of an Arbitration Board who:

- (a) Is acting or has acted within a period of six (6) months preceding the date of their appointment in the capacity of solicitor, legal adviser, counsel or paid agent of either of the parties;
- (b) Has any pecuniary interest in the matter referred to the Board.

12.04 Board Procedure

The Board may determine its own procedure but shall give full opportunity to all parties to present evidence and make representations to it. The Board shall commence its proceedings as quickly as is practical after its constitution. It shall hear and determine the difference or allegation and render a decision. The decision of a majority shall be the decision of the Board, but if there is no majority the decision of the Chairman shall govern.

12.05 Decision of the Board

The decision of the Board of Arbitration shall be final and binding on all parties, but in no event shall the Board of Arbitration have the power to alter, modify or amend this agreement in any respect.

The Board shall only hear those matters which have been properly raised through the grievance procedure within the time limits stipulated.

No preliminary objection may be raised at a Board hearing unless the other party has been advised at least three (3) weeks before the hearing, if practical, that the objection will be raised.

Should the parties disagree as to the meaning of the decision of the Board, either party may apply to the Chairman of the Board of Arbitration to reconvene the Board or otherwise to clarify the decision.

12.06 Expenses of the Board

Each party shall pay:

- (a) The fees and expenses of the Arbitrator appointed by it;

(b) One-half the fees and expenses of the chairman.

12.07 Amending of Time Limits

The time limits fixed in both the grievance and arbitration procedures may be extended by written consent of the parties to this agreement.

12.08 At any stage of the grievance or arbitration procedures the parties may have the assistance of the employee(s) concerned as witnesses, or any other witnesses, and all reasonable arrangements will be made to permit the conferring parties or the Arbitrator(s) to have access to any part of the Employer's premises to view any working conditions which may be relevant to the settlement of the grievance.

ARTICLE 13 DISCIPLINE PROCEDURE

13.01 An employee may only be disciplined for just cause. When an employee is disciplined or discharged, such employee and the Union shall be advised promptly in writing by the Employer, giving the reasons for the discipline or discharge.

13.02 An employee who considers that they have been wrongfully or unjustly discharged or suspended, shall be entitled to lodge a grievance beginning at Step No. 2, provided such grievance is lodged in writing within three (3) business days of the discharge or suspension.

13.03 If the parties agree that an employee has been unjustly suspended or discharged, such employee shall be immediately reinstated in their former position without loss of seniority rating and shall be compensated for all time lost in an amount equal to their normal earnings during the pay period next preceding such discharge or suspension, or by any other arrangement as to compensation which is just and equitable in the opinion of the conferring parties, or in the opinion of the Board of Arbitration if the matter is referred to such a Board.

13.04 Each employee shall have reasonable access to their personnel file for the purpose of reviewing any evaluations or formal discipline notations contained therein, in the presence of the CEO or designate. An Employee has the right to request copies of any evaluation in this file.

13.05 An employee shall have the right to have a union representative present for any meeting when discipline or discharge is being imposed. The Library shall advise the Union when a meeting is intended to be disciplinary in nature and any such meeting shall be scheduled by the Library within a reasonable period of time.

ARTICLE 14 HOURS OF WORK

- 14.01 The parties recognize that the nature and character of the service being rendered to the public prevents the usual standardization of hours of work. Therefore the normal work week shall be as follows:

All full-time employees, with the exception of maintenance staff, work thirty-five (35) hours per week.

All full-time maintenance staff, work 35 or 40 hours per week. It is agreed that all maintenance employees employed as of January 1, 2002 shall not have their hours of work per week reduced below 40 hours per week without their agreement.

- 14.02 (a) The normal work day shall be from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., from 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m., or such shift periods of eight (8) hours including one (1) hour unpaid meal period, and one (1) ten-minute paid rest period during each half shift. Each full-time member shall be entitled to at least two (2) weekends off every four (4) weeks.

It is understood that flexibility will be permitted the Employer in arranging hours of work provided always that the employee shall work a normal week of thirty-five (35) hours with a reporting time no earlier than 8:00 a.m. and a quitting time no later than 9:00 p.m. except during exam time, for the purposes of set-up/takedown and special/community events. Affected employee(s) shall receive at least 30 days' notice for any Library-initiated events/programs. In the case of non-Library events/programs, the Library shall endeavour to give at least seven (7) days' notice of the change; otherwise, will meet with the affected employee to determine whether the employee can attend or to canvass suitable replacements.

No full-time staff member shall be required to work a "split shift" unless mutually agreed.

- (b) Employees at their option may arrange to trade weekend shifts or offer to work extra weekend shifts, subject to management's approval. Such an arrangement will be deemed not to be in violation of the weekend limits specified in Article 14.02 (a), nor will it result in overtime being paid to the employees involved.

Sunday Work

Employees employed as of December 31, 2001 shall not be required to work on Sundays. Employees hired after December 31, 2001 are hired with the understanding that they will regularly be scheduled on Sundays as part of their regular work week.

- a) Evaluating all jobs using the job evaluation plan;
- b) Recommending to the parties changes to the job evaluation plan, its procedures or methods, as may be deemed necessary from time to time;
- c) Recording the results and rationale on a rating sheet as outlined in the plan.

Article 5 Job Analysis Procedures

a) Step 1

A Job Information Questionnaire shall be completed by the incumbent or representative group and the non-union Supervisor. The completed questionnaire shall be submitted to the J.J.E.C along with a copy of the current job description, if one exists. The questionnaire should detail any changes to the job resulting from new or changed circumstances in the job.

- b) Step 2
The Committee will draft up-to-date job description based on the information gathered. Where further information is required, interviews shall be held with the incumbent and/or the non-union Supervisor. The Committee shall submit the job description to the incumbent and the non-union Supervisor for their mutual agreement. Amendments may be made to the proposed job description, as deemed necessary by the Committee, from the response of the incumbent and the non-union Supervisor. When agreed upon, the job description shall be signed by the incumbent and the non-union Supervisor to signify their mutual agreement.
- c) Step 3
The job shall now be rated, based on the agreed upon job description in accordance with the Job Evaluation Plan. The committee shall also use information obtained from the completed questionnaire and, if required, interviews with the incumbent and/or non-union Supervisor, and visits to the job site.
- d) Step 4
When the Committee has completed the rating of all jobs it will provide the non-union Supervisor and the incumbent with notice of their salary band and a copy of the job description.

5.2 In the application of the Job Evaluation Plan, the following general rules shall apply:

- a) It is the content of the job, not the performance of the incumbent that is being rated;
- b) Jobs are evaluated without regard to existing wage rates;
- c) Jobs are placed at the appropriate degree level in each sub factor by comparing the specific requirements of the job to the sub factor definition and the description of each degree level;
- d) The job analysis and rating of each job shall be relevant to and consistent with the job descriptions of all other jobs rated under the Plan;
- e) No interpolation of sub factor degrees (i.e. midpoints) is permitted.
- f) Rating decisions shall include a sore-thumbing process to ensure consistency in Committee decisions;
- g) A Committee member shall be excused from rating their own job, the position of a direct subordinate, or any position where the rating of that job may place them in a conflict of interest situation.
- h) Members of the J.J.E.C. shall not discuss meeting contents outside the meeting forum.
- i) Members of the J.J.E.C. shall not approach employees without the permission or direction of the J.J.E.C. regarding matters currently under review by the committee.

Article 6

6.1 Maintaining the Job Evaluation Program

It is important that each party maintain accurate job descriptions and job ratings on an ongoing basis. Failure to do so will serve to damage the integrity of the program. It is the intention of the parties to review jobs, by having each incumbent meet with their non-union manager at least once during the life of each Collective Agreement or every three (3) years, whichever is greater.

6.2 Procedure for Changed Jobs

Whenever the incumbent/Union/Employer feel that the duties and responsibilities of a job have been changed, or that job description does not reflect the duties and responsibilities of the job, the following procedures shall be followed:

- a) The incumbent/Union or the non-union Supervisor/Employer may submit a request for a Job Evaluation review to the Committee through their respective Co-chair. There will be at least a 6 month interval from the last request for review of a job before another request for review may be submitted.
- b) Upon receipt of notice of this request, the J.J.E.C. shall proceed to gather accurate, up-to-date information on the job in accordance with the Job Analysis Procedures. The gathering of information shall involve requesting the incumbent and non-union Supervisor to complete an up-to-date job information questionnaire. Where further information is required, interviews shall be held with the incumbent and/or non-union Supervisor and, if necessary, visits to the job site.
- c) Where the job description has changed, the Committee shall meet to rate the changed sub factors of the job and to establish a new rating for the job. The rating of the job shall determine the pay grade for the job.

6.3 Procedure for New Jobs

Whenever the Employer wishes to establish a new job, the following procedures shall apply:

- a) The Employer shall prepare a draft job description for the job;
- b) The J.J.E.C. shall meet and establish a temporary pay grade for the job, based on the draft job description;
- c) The job shall be posted in accordance with usual procedures as outlined in Article 10 of the Collective Agreement, after which the standard procedures of the Joint Job Evaluation process shall apply.

Article 7 Settlement of Disputes

In the event the J.J.E.C. is unable to reach agreement on any matter relating to the interpretations, application or administration of the job evaluation program, such unresolved matters may then be referred to arbitration for a final and binding decision.

Arbitration

- 7.1.1 Either party may, by written notice to the other party, refer the dispute to a single Arbitrator who shall be selected by agreement of the parties. If the parties are unable to agree, either party may request the Ministry of Labour to appoint an Arbitrator.

The Arbitrator shall decide the matter upon which the J.J.E.C. was unable to agree and their decision shall be final and binding on the J.J.E.C., the Employer, the Union and all affected employees. The Arbitrator shall be bound by the Collective Agreement, which for this purpose includes the Job Evaluation Plan, and shall not have the power to modify or amend any of their provisions. The jurisdiction of the Arbitrator shall be limited to the matter in dispute, as submitted by the parties.

- 7.1.2 The Employer and the Union shall be the parties to the arbitration hearing and shall have the right to present evidence and argument concerning the matter in dispute. The Arbitrator shall have the powers of an Arbitrator appointed pursuant to the Collective Agreement and, in addition, shall have the authority to require the parties to present additional information and to require other person(s) to present evidence, as deemed necessary by the Arbitrator.

- 7.1.3 The Arbitrator's fees and expenses shall be borne equally between the parties.

- 7.2 The time limits contained in this Letter of Understanding may be extended by mutual agreement of the parties.

Article 8 Applying the Rating to the Salary Ranges

- 8.1 If a job is rated at a pay grade with a salary range higher than the current wage rate for the job, the incumbent's rate of pay shall be adjusted to the higher pay level on the new salary schedule, retroactive to the date the Job Evaluation Request was submitted to the J.J.E.C. The incumbents shall retain the same place on any increment grid.
- 8.2 If a job is rated at a pay grade with a salary range lower than the current wage rate for the job, the incumbent shall be identified as "Red-Circled" but shall continue to progress (increment) through the salary range to the job rate of the previous pay grade. "Red-Circled" positions shall not receive negotiated increases until the job rates for their band have reached the level of the "Red-Circled" position.
- 8.3 No incumbent shall have their wages reduced following the re-evaluation of their job and the establishment of a new wage structure.

Article 9 Inclusion of the Job Evaluation Plan and Documents

This Letter of Understanding is deemed to include the Mercer Job Evaluation Plan, job descriptions, and any other documents as agreed to by the Joint Job Evaluation Committee.
